Oink, oink, snort... here comes the Hog Report®.

Hog of the Week

The Hog of the Week award goes to the Knuckle Dusters! Augie benched a couple regulars and found gold in the free agency pool with rookies Greg Jennings and Marques Colston. Better yet, Matt crushed the preseason favorite Widowmakers by 26 fantasy points. Give it up to the Supreme Ruler, this week's HOTW.

What The Heck Happened?

Week 3

Two free agent pick ups helped the Knuckle Dusters flatten the Widowmakers. Greg Jennings and Marques Colston combined for 198 yards and 1 TD. Matt Hasselbeck was huge with 5 TD's, as was Fast Willie who amassed 146 yards and 2 TD's. Preseason favorite Widowmakers were led by kicker John Kasay's 51, 50, 49, and 46 yard field goals. High draft pick Chad Johnson had a swell day with 1 reception for 11 yards. It's a big showdown this weekend for Hennings when he faces the division leader Matt Spencer and the Buffalo Soldiers.

Goods news for the Pigskins... they got Steve Smith back. Bad news... Donte Stallworth was a late scratch. Good news for the Pigskins... they remain undefeated! Bad news... they lose Shaun Alexander for "a couple of weeks" to a broken left foot. Javon Walker was a highlight reel on MNF with 130 yards and 2 TD's. Southsiders nearly mustered enough fantasy points to post their first victory of the season. Unfortunately they played the co-high scorer of the week. Roy Williams posted 138 yards and a TD a week after he guarantees victory over the Chicago Bears. TJ Houshurmاده tallied 94 yards and 2 TD's.

How big was Brian Westbrook on Sunday? P-Cubed's star running back compiled a meager 164 yards and 3 TD's. Oh, and he was probable going into the game. Add Peyton Manning's 219 yards and 2 TD's and Brad had plenty of fantasy points to upend the rebuilding River Rats. Manning also had his first rushing TD ever. River Rat's quarterback Kurt Warner had 4 turnovers and the Arizona faithful are calling for Matt Leinart. However it was reported that coach Dennis Green indicated that Kurt Warner, not rookie Matt Leinart, will be his starting QB for the time being.

The hard luck Rough Riders put together another respectable week of fantasy points, but fall just short to the D-Teasers. DT just finds a way. Both teams ignored the bye weeks and did not pick up any free agents last week. It seemed to balance out and resulted in a very close match. Clinton Portis (shoulder) proved plenty healthy gaining 164 yards and 2 TD's. Early season sensation Frank Gore (abdomen) is expected to return to action after x-rays show no major damage. Throw me the damn ball Johnson contributed 101 yards and 2 TD's.

In a game that could've gone either way, the Buffs slip past the War Pigs and remain unbeaten. Donovan McNabb continues his quest for league MVP honors with another remarkable performance of 296 yards and 2 TD's. Andre Johnson is healthy this year and added a respectable 152 yards receiving (in garbage time). Corey Dillon (arm) left the game early and is day to day. Jake the snake Plummer (benched) hooked up twice with Javon Walker for 2 TD's on MNF. Matt Stover kicked field goals of 32, 43, and 52 yards in his audition for the Widowmakers.

Boden picked up his first win of the season in any league. I'd say your pretty lucky to get a W when you have 1 passing TD and no rushing or receiving TD's. I think it's high time this franchise changed it's name to better reflect their persona ... how about Rabbit's Foot? Look no further than Plexico Burress to describe how the Bear Necessities' season is going... 23 yards and a fumble lost. At least the real Bears are looking good! Wrecks Grossman is avoiding injury and playing well.
