A Thinker with Vision

In a rather wacky email sent out to the league spewing feelings of "do-goodness and fairness", the Widowmaker claimed to be Kunta Kinte! This proclamation has since been criticized by league historians and at least one league genealogist as highly improbable.

Further research has led our Hog Reporters to uncover evidence that the Widowmaker may more accurately be claiming to be to LeVar Burton.

The Widowmaker is seen here playing Georgi La Forge

SFFL officials and team managers are planning to move ahead with the renaming of the division to Three Athletes and La Forge... it was determined to be more accurate and less offensive than Widowmakers suggestion of Three Athletes and Toby.

Winless Dolphins sticking with Lemon

Cam Cameron will stay with a quarterback who is 0-4 as a starter. At 0-8, the Dolphins are desperate for a victory to end talk they might become the first team to finish 0-16. Lemon's hold on the job is tenuous because he has three fumbles and four interceptions in his three starts this season.

For this week, there will be no change," Cameron told the Miami Herald on Monday. "Cleo Lemon will be our quarterback at this point ... As I went back and looked at the tape, I remembered all of the good things that he's done."

"This is the NFL," Lemon said. "You're never immune from competition. You've got people coming in trying to take your job every year... It's survival of the fittest."

I'd let Jessica Alba have the job

NFL Records

In just his eighth NFL game, Adrian Peterson rushed 30 times for 296 yards

Antonio Cromartie returned a missed FG 109 yards for a TD
