

Hog Report®

Each SFFL season we like to provide some easy reading during the Thanksgiving holiday. Thanksgiving is synonymous with football games and Santa Claus.

Vice Pres. Santa Joe Biden

Last week, Donovan McNabb didn't realize a NFL game could end in a tie. But, his stupidity helped extend his Campbell's Chucky contract into 2009. Go figure.

New Team Logos:

The River Rats entered the league last year with this menacing team logo.

The Knuckle Dusters created this new team logo. The Knuckle Dusters are the former "Door Matts" and "C4 Explosives".

The Insti-Gators unveiled their new team logo during the SFFL draft. The Insti-Gators are the former Widowmakers.

The Blackcats have had several iterations of feline logos. The team name remains the same, but this cat has had at least 9 logos.

The Pigskins have updated their team logo recently to accentuate the team's running back trio... Earth, Wind & Fire.

And, the D-Teasers have the best team logo never used.

The SFFL preseason rules summit brought changes to the SFFL. One of the changes is the 3 bowl contests:

SFFL Super Bowl - 1st through 4th seeded teams and cash prizes

Consolation Bowl - 5th through 8th seeded teams and a $64 prize

Toilet Bowl - 9th through 12th seeded teams and a $42 prize

Seeds are determined via overall record first, then using tie-breakers
